LOCAL AND PERSONAL

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair tonight; colder in southeast portion. Friday, fair.

A society girl in Albuquerque did not. And her face was decidedly pained. When she walked on the street. All the people she'd meet. Exclaimed, "O, she gives me a pain."

The Xmas entertainment for St. John's Sunday school will be held this evening at 7 o'clock p. m. in the Guild hall.

Thomas S. Hubbell, the ex-sheriff of Bernalillo county, who was at El Paso on business, has returned to the city.

P. S. Van Slyke, live stock agent for the Santa Fe, with headquarters at El Paso, is registered at the Alvarado.

Mrs. Bleckerson, mother of Mrs. Henry Goetz, left this morning for her home in the east, after a pleasant visit with her daughter.

Services at Temple Albert Friday evening at 7:45. "The Joy of Giving," will be the subject of Rabbi Kaplan's sermon. Everybody welcome.

G. M. Smith, auditor for the Harvey system of eating houses in New Mexico, left this morning for Las Vegas, after a day's visit at the Alvarado.

All members of the Harugari lodge are requested to meet at Red Men's hall Friday morning at 9:30 for the purpose of attending the funeral of Mrs. Alex. With. William Goetting, O. B.

Dr. W. G. Shadrach, the eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, who was called to California on business, has returned to the city, and is now at his office at No. 313½ West Railroad avenue.

Henry Bixner, manager for the Hermosa Copper company, operating near Silver City, is in the city, accompanied by Mrs. Bixner. They are looking the city over today with a view to buying residence property.

Attorney Charles W. G. Ward, editor of the Las Vegas Optic, returned home last night, after having spent a few days in the city visiting friends and attending the annual meeting of the New Mexico Educational association, which is in session in the high school building.

Max B. Fitch, manager for the Southwestern Lead and Coal company, operating in the Cabello mountains, Sierra county, is spending the day in the city, transacting business with local merchants. Mr. Fitch says that there is more snow in the Cabello mountains now than for many years.

The two sons of Dr. George T. Gould, of The Citizen, Ralf and Robin, who are students respectively in the University of Missouri and the University of Chicago, are spending their Christmas recess with relatives in Missouri, whom they had never seen, the young men having been born and reared in New Mexico.

Miss Claude Albright, New Mexico's most powerful representative in the east for either single or joint statehood, will be in Denver the last week in January, 1906, and it is understood that a large number of Albuquerque admirers will be therewith. The young lady is one of the principal members of the Savage English Opera company.

Leonard Skinner, the saw miller at San Antonio, out in the Sandia mountains, is in the city today purchasing supplies and arranging matters for a big run every month next year. Mr. Skinner, however, informs The Citizen that the roads out his way are in bad condition, and he has been unable to bring in very much dressed lumber the past month.

Superintendent H. O. Bureau, of the territorial penitentiary, arrived in the city last evening on No. 1, with the information that James Sanders, alias, James Gibson, the negro sentenced to a year's imprisonment from this city for larceny and burglary, and whose escape was exclusively chronicled in The Evening Citizen, had been captured at La Junta, Colo. R. G. Putnam, of the New Mexico mounted police, escorted the prisoner back to the penitentiary.

J. F. Silva, of Sandoval county; J. E. Sanchez, of Valencia county; Marcelino Garcia, of Santa Fe county; Juan C. Jaramilla, of Torrance county; and J. A. Torres, of Socorro county, form a levy of county school superintendents of the territory, who paid their respects to The Citizen office this morning. The county superintendents of the territory have been called to Albuquerque for convention, by Territorial Superintendent of Public Instruction, Hiram Hadley.

A few days before Christmas, Alderman Thomas Isherwood received a letter from his sister-in-law, Mrs. Peter Isherwood, at El Paso, saying that she expected her son, Walter Butler, of Telluride, Colo., to visit her and spend Christmas. Yesterday Mr. Isherwood received another letter from his sister-in-law, conveying the sad intelligence that Mr. Butler had taken sick with pneumonia and died on Christmas night at Telluride. The deceased resided in this city some years ago, at a time when his father, also deceased, had charge of the Corralitos coal yards on South First street.

"Hans Hanson" at the Elks' opera house last night, proved to be identical with Ole Olson, Nels Nelson, and all the rest of the clan, with a few small changes in the plot. Mr. McAlpin, who played the part of Hans last night, looked very much like the "Ole Olson" who came to the Elks' opera house last winter. His "yodeling," however, was very much superior to that of last year's Ole, so the question might be raised that Hans and Ole were not one and the same person. The curtain did not raise until 9:50 o'clock, owing to the lateness of the train which brought the company down from Las Vegas.

Mrs. Joseph Barnett, who has been in southern California and at Phoenix, Ariz., the past month, returned to the city on the delayed No. 2 yesterday. She left Mr. Barnett's Phoenix, where the first annual territorial fair is now in progress, and she reports that one of the Barnett horses, the famous pacer, Stranger O., as suffering from a cold. It is understood that the cold weather has extended all over Arizona, and the weather at Phoenix is as cold if not colder now than here.

George A. Stingle and sister, Mary L. Stingle, who have been in the city the past three months, visiting with their brother, John A. Stingle, who has been seriously ill, but who is now much improved, will leave tonight for their home in Los Angeles.

The Commercial club dance of last evening was more largely attended than the club's dances have been for some time, probably due to the season of the year. Refreshments were served as usual.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet in business session at the residence of Mrs. David Stewart, East Coal avenue, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

A SHOE STORE In The Making

The shoe business of this clothing store has been built. It is yet possible of a healthy, material growth. It began small; it expanded—it is still building. Today we sell three times the number of shoes we sold five years ago.

Why? It grew for three main reasons, viz.: Hanan shoes, Douglas shoes, guaranteed quality. Years ago we sold any make of shoes. Now we concentrate our efforts in selling the two best lines in their respective classes, and guarantee every pair to give entire satisfaction. Hanan shoes sell at $5.50 to $6.50. Douglas shoes sell at $2.50 to $3.00.
